

K-love is one of my favorite stations. Public services, news & uplifting music are of great public service. Do not replace this station with a LPFM. The local listeners, both young and old would lose a valuable service. Positive music with upbeat messages is in the public interest. Family values are not often found in radio. Do not let LPFM take priority over current FM translator service. Thankyou, Jon Allen